

EMPLOYEES (faculty and staff)
REQUEST FOR REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS
CONFIDENTIAL

This form is the initial step in an employee's request for accommodation at the workplace based on a disability. This will assist the University in determining whether, or to what extent, you are eligible for an accommodation in order to perform one or more of the essential functions of your job safely and effectively. Following your completion and submission of this form, the Office of Equity and Diversity will participate with you in a process that will involve interaction with you, your supervisor(s), and, if necessary, your health care providers. This process may also include health care professionals or subject-area specialists identified by the University as necessary to understand fully the nature of the disability, the accommodations requested and any accommodations suggested by the employee's health care providers.
